NOW REJOICING

BRADLEY FAMILY WILL SOON BE ONCE MORE TO- GETHER

For many weeks Mrs. W. C. Bradley off 523 Oak street has been anxiously awaiting the return of her youngest son, Howard, who was with the marines in Cuba. She sent an urgent request to the Government for his discharge away last November and was promised he would be discharged in February. There were vexatious delays, however, and it was only a few days ago that she received word that he had at last been freed. He landed at Charleston, S. C., the first of the week and was soon speeding home. He arrived at home this morning. His father, W. C. Bradley, who works for an oil company at El Segundo, will be up tonight to greet him and there will be one joyful time in the Bradley home tomorrow. To add to their joy, Ormond, the second son, who has been with the 316th Engineers, has telegraphed his arrival in New York, so he will be at home in a very few days. The Bradley family have been soldiers as far back as the history of the country and the father greatly regretted his inability to get into the last scrap.

SUNNY FRANCE DECIDEDLY A MISNOMER

Californians transplanted from Eastern states are wont to rail at the execrable climate during the winter and spring "back home," but according to the letters of many of our boys over there, France is infinitely worse in a climatic way. Farris Brown of 217 W. Lomita Ave., who is stationed at one of the biggest hospitals in Europe, that at Is-sur-Tille, where five railroads center so that emergency patients and others less seriously affected come in on every train, writes that it rains or snows nearly every day and that the men cannot keep their feet dry. Colds are developed which sometimes do not yield to the warmth of the summer days. The boys all long to get back to the good old U. S. A., especially those so fortunate as to claim Southern California as their home.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

In celebration of the birthday of her daughter, Mrs. Florence McMillan, of Los Angeles, Mrs. R. Roberts, assisted by Miss Laura Roberts, entertained Tuesday with a mid-day dinner, at which covers were laid for the three ladies mentioned for Mrs. Boughton of Alameda, Cal., and her daughter Ellen, and for Mrs. E. M. Brundage, mother of the hostess. While quite informal it was a very pleasant family reunion and the guest of honor was the recipient of pretty gifts.

ARKANSAS AND OREGON PICNICS

The annual reunion and picnic of the Arkansas and the Oregon State Societies will be held in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, Saturday, May 3d. County registers will be provided and everybody is urged to come early and stay all day. Hot coffee will be served at noon and in the afternoon there will be a brief program.

CAMP PUBLICATION

W. G. COLLINS RECEIVES INTER- ESTING COPY OF CAMP PERI- ODICAL OF U. S. TROOPS

W. G. Collins of 819 Wilson avenue whose son, Private Herbert L. Collins, is with the 25th Engineers in France, is in receipt of a copy of the "Pontanezen Duckboard," which is the official publication of troops in Camp Pontanezen, written, edited and published by and for the soldiers of the camp and printed at Brest. An article of special interest to Mr. Collins contains a record of the work of the 25th, which states that there were few, if any, of the great engineering projects of the A. E. F. in which this organization did not have a part. To quote from this contribution:

"The 25th did not 'win the war,' but, composed as it was of mature, skilled artisans, men of every conceivable trade and profession who voluntarily quit their jobs and offered the best that was in them to Uncle Sam in his hour of need, coming from every state in the Union, they knew why they were there, asked no questions, but yielded results that will not be forgotten by those who know the history of America's part in this world struggle.

A VINDICATION

TRUSTEES DISPROVE CHARGES MADE AGAINST MISS DOUGLASS IN CATHOLIC CHURCH CASE

Mr. A. T. Cowan,
Editor Glendale Evening News.

Dear Sir:—
About ten days ago you published in your paper certain charges brought against Miss Maybelle Douglass, a teacher in the Cerritos Avenue School, by the Rev. James S. O'Neill. We, the Board of Trustees of the Glendale City Schools, request that you show us the courtesy of publishing our findings in the matter.

In general, the charges were that Miss Douglass had, in her class room, made derogatory remarks about the Roman Catholic Church and the Irish people.

A committee appointed by the Board of Trustees examined Miss Douglass and every child in her room, except a few who were absent, as to whether or not she had made the remarks she is alleged to have made.

From the evidence thus obtained the Board finds and decides that Miss Douglass did not make any derogatory remarks about the Roman Catholic Church or about anyone or anything connected therewith. She is therefore absolutely innocent of the offense charged.

As to the Irish people, Miss Douglass undoubtedly discussed present conditions in Ireland as in other countries.

She did not make any derogatory remarks about the Irish people as a whole.

Her only offense of which the Board can find any real evidence was in using the name Sinn Feiners without a full and complete knowledge of its meaning.

As soon as the matter was brought to her attention, and before any charges had been brought before the Board, she made a full apology to her class for having used the name without fully understanding its meaning.

In view of the facts as developed through investigation, the Board deprecates the fact that so much publicity has been given to charges which it finds are not substantiated.

The Board also desires at this time to specifically deny a statement published in your paper of March 7, 1919, over the signature of the Rev. James S. O'Neill. We quote from that article: "I have heard the statement that no Catholics and Christian Scientists may teach in the Glendale Schools."

On the above point the Rev. James S. O'Neill is very badly misinformed. There are at present teaching in the Glendale City Schools, members of both of the churches mentioned.

The church affiliation of any applicant for a teacher's position has never been made a condition of appointment by this Board.

Respectfully,
BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
Glendale City Schools.
MRS. CHARLES H. TOLL, Pres.
JOHN TODD, Clerk.
D. J. HIBBEN, Trustee.

CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lawrence L. Bell of 360 Patterson avenue entertained Wednesday afternoon a few friends of her little daughter Barbara in celebration of the little girl's sixth birthday. During the afternoon the children had a royally good time playing games and then they were gathered about the table and party refreshments of the sort little folks like were served. It was a very pretty table in which a pink and green color scheme was carried out with Cecil Bruner roses with dainty place cards and other appointments. A big birthday cake with candles and with pink and green decorations held a place of honor. It was a happy day for Barbara and her guests who were: Leah and Louis Boone, Laura Cutter, Lottie Hudson, Ruth Wilson, Edith Pentecost, Tom Pentecost, Junior Hudson, Catherine, Henry and Gordon Bell. The small hostess was the recipient of many birthday remembrances.

THEY LIKE CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goudie of 458 W. Maple street entertained the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peppleton, daughter Lillian and son Donald, old friends from Chicago who are touring California by auto. Another Chicago friend of other days, Mr. Engle, was with them last week. The latter owns a chain of barber shops in Chicago, and he is taking a vacation from business to view the sights of California. Mr. Peppleton is a railroad engineer. Both Mr. Engle and the Peppletons are deeply impressed with California's beauties and hope to locate out here ere long.

GOOD ADVICE FROM GABRIEL D'ANNUNZIO

ASKED TO LEAD DEMONSTRATIONS, HE WIRES FOR PEOPLE TO "WATCH AND KEEP SILENCE"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Rome, April 24.—A record-breaking demonstration followed the receipt here of President Wilson's statement issued yesterday. Vast crowds carrying flags of the redeemed cities paraded the streets throughout the night and are still parading early this morning. Several members of the Chamber of Deputies spoke, demanding the annexation of Fiume and urging Premier Orlando to withdraw from the conference until the Italian demands are granted.

Several deputies wired the poet, Gabriel d'Annunzio, asking him to come to Rome to lead demonstrations. In reply to the requests he wired for the people "to watch and keep silence."

PRECAUTIONS BY PREMIER ORLANDO

WIRES ROME TO PROVIDE MILITARY PROTECTION FOR AMERICAN EMBASSY AND CONSULATES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 24.—It was reported here today that Premier Orlando of Italy, after reading President Wilson's statement, wired to Rome to provide military protection for the American embassy and all American consulates in that country.

ITALIAN SITUATION BEWILDERS

PREMIER ORLANDO REPLIES TO WILSON'S STATEMENT, PROTESTING IN NAME OF ITALIAN PEOPLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 24.—The Italian situation grew more tense and bewildering throughout the day. For a time it appeared as though the Italians had been appeased temporarily and would reconsider their determination to withdraw from the peace conference. A high authority announced at noon: "The Italians will not depart today." In less than two hours, however, the official press bureau announced that "while the Italians will not leave this afternoon, they probably will leave on a special train tonight."

Premier Orlando issued a short statement, replying to President Wilson, in which he declared he "earnestly protested" against the decision and stated the Italians will not submit to any will save their own. He declared Wilson's statement was intended to set the Italian people against their government.

In the meantime representatives of President Wilson declared he was standing pat and would reopen the question only on condition that the Italians unequivocally acknowledge the principles contained in the armistice and his fourteen points.

Still another angle was given the situation at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino attended a meeting of the "Big Four."

The French press today denounced President Wilson's statement. The British press seems disinclined to take any stand.

According to reliable information, Lloyd George and Clemenceau approved Wilson's statement before it was issued.

WHY BURLESON IS UNPOPULAR

HE ATTRIBUTES IT TO REVISION OF SECOND-CLASS RATES AND REDUCTION OF RAILROAD PAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 24.—In an interview today Postmaster General Burleson declared that his revision of second-class mail rates caused attacks from newspaper publishers, and his extension of the parcels post and reduction of the railway mail pay caused the railways and others interested to attack him, and for that reason he is unpopular.

He declared most second-class mail matter is advertising which the publishers are highly paid to circulate.

CHAPLAIN COMMANDS OVERSEAS MEN

FORMER MEMBERS OF TROOP D, CALIFORNIA NATIONAL GUARD, REACH L. A. THIS MORNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, April 24.—One hundred and twelve men, formerly of Troop D, California National Guard, arrived at 9 a. m. and paraded to Pershing Square, where the city extended a formal welcome. In France the men were attached to headquarters of the 40th Division. Chaplain James Gunn was in command.

RACIAL EQUALITY LEAGUE RESOLUTIONS

Tokio, April 24.—The Racial Equality League, in convention here, adopted resolutions declaring that Japan must not join the League of Nations until the league ceases to discriminate against the Japanese.

BREAK BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 24.—A Vienna dispatch via Berlin reports that Austria and Hungary have broken diplomatic relations.

REUNION OF FRIENDS

MR. AND MRS. G. S. SMITH EN- TERTAIN FOR MR. AND MRS. E. L. SMITH, BATTLE CREEK

A delightful social event occurred Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Smith, of 410 East Broadway, entertained a number of old friends in honor of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Battle Creek, Mich., who are spending a few months in the land of sunshine and roses.

Informal visiting, music and stories of old times was the order of the evening, and time passed very pleasantly and quickly. Mrs. E. L. Smith, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Champlain, rendered vocal numbers, and Miss Susine Wessels, accompanied by Miss Mildred Pray, gave several beautiful violin selections.

Miss Ida Thompson, who has spent several years in China, told a story in the tongue of that country, and Mrs. E. L. Smith translated it. Dr. Pliny Haskell read the following original lines, which all enjoyed greatly:

Last night while deep o'er my books
I was thinking,
There came at the 'phone a sharp ringing;
Long distance was ringing and ringing.
As if one from the dead it were bringing.

"Oh dear!" Thought I in impatience, Must I now call on a patient?"
So up I got to take orders
As we must—we who are doctors.
"Hello! Is this Pliny Haskell?"
Pliny, whose surname is Haskell?"
"Yes, yes, this is the rascal;
Who is it that is calling up Haskell?"
"Glendale—Glendale is calling;
You have the line—talk to your party."

For joy I scarce kept from falling
As I list to the voice clear and hearty.

"At 8 come over tomorrow;
Leave behind trouble and sorrow;
Come meet the friends of your boy-hood.

Now true friends of your manhood."
So I am here—how delighted—These old-time friends to have sighted.

For he—I knew him as Edward,
And she—I knew her as Fannie,

VICTORY LOAN PROGRESS

About twenty-three workers in the Victory Loan Campaign rallied Wednesday night at campaign headquarters where Judge Lowe and Mrs. Ralph Meeker were present to discuss with them assignments of territory and to give out supplies. Active workers are still needed particularly in precincts 7 and 8. It is hardly credible that Glendale can fail to meet her quota after the splendid record she has made in the past, but some of the leaders declare there must be canvassers enough to cover the territory or that very thing may happen and Glendale be held up to the scorn of her sister cities.

In such a situation the patriotic citizens should not wait to be called upon, but should lose no time in applying to the Glendale banks or at the headquarters of the Campaign Committee just north of the post-office.

Up to Wednesday night sales had totaled about $15,000 which is encouraging considering that workers are hardly organized yet.

REPAIRS ON CITY LIBRARY

Glendale has an expert working on its City Library in restoring the cement trimmings which have crumbled in ragged lines like rotten, worm-eaten wood. He is a Belgian, Robert B. Lamens, who devotes his entire time to such restoration work and who finds plenty of employment for many buildings in California are crumbling in the same way. He says it is due to the use of sand which contains a disintegrating element, in this instance feldspar, which crumbles when exposed to the weather. It was not cheap sand, but in many cases was expensive material. The users simply did not know it contained feldspar. One firm of contractors in this state is said to have gone bankrupt trying to reimburse patrons for such damage. Mr. Lamens treated the cement with a preparation which he says will stop the disintegration and is restoring the broken lines.

PROF. BROOKS HAS LANDED

Mrs. Alton M. Brooks has just received word of the arrival of her husband in New York last Friday, April 18th. He left Genoa, Italy, about the 1st, sailing on the Dante Alighieri. He is expected to arrive in Glendale about May 1st.

HOME GIRLS WIN

INTERMEDIATE INDOOR BALL TEAM DEFEATS BURBANK TEAM—SCORE 23 TO 14

Wednesday afternoon the girls' indoor ball team of Intermediate beat the Burbank girls by the overwhelming score of 23 to 14. It was the first game played this year by the girls of that Glendale school and these girls of the home team were particularly good at the bat. Opal Peck hit two home runs and Eloene Truitt and Eula Stevenson each clouted a ball for four base hits. Three batters and two baggers were too numerous to mention.

The Intermediate girls were also the best fielders and their good playing was the feature of the game, helping to greatly cut down the Burbank score. Dorothy Van Ossdell, Intermediate left fielder, made several star catches of flies, and Helen Robertson at first base played her position without error.

In the ninth inning one of the Burbank girls ran into the ball, which was held by Rosabel Arnett at second base, and was hurt badly enough to be taken out of the game.

The Intermediate girls are anxious to play every possible game and would like to challenge the Freshman girls of the High School. The players on the Intermediate team were:

Valma Goss, Catcher.
Opal Peck, Pitcher.
Helen Robertson, First Base.
Rosabel Arnett, Second Base.
Margery Sherman, Third Base.
Eula Stevenson, Right Short.
Dorothy Van Ossdell, Left Field.
Irene Robinson, Right Field.
Jane Butterfield, Center Field.

BOOK DONATIONS

The Glendale Public Library has received several donations lately, one a collection of Catholic books presented by Mrs. J. P. Green and given by several residents of that faith.

There has also been a contribution of theological works from the Theosophical Society of the city, and last but not least, a miscellaneous collection of books of travel, biography and of a general nature from the library of Mrs. J. W. West of Belmont street, which will be appreciated by many readers.

VIRDEN FAMILY TO MOVE

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Virden and family of 335 Mira Loma avenue expect to move the tenth of May to their old home, 946 West Kensington Road, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Huse, the owner of the house in which they have been living on Mira Loma, desires to take possession of it again, and so they are forced to move. They will be much missed here especially in the southern part of the city, of which they have been residents for a number of years. Mr. Virden will continue to conduct his drug store at the corner of Los Feliz and San Fernando Road.

DEATH OF FRANK HALL EDWARDS

This morning, Thursday, April 24, 1919, Frank Hall Edwards, who has been a resident of this city but a few weeks, at 1423 South Brand, boulevard, died at 4 a. m. of pernicious anemia after an illness which has lasted for several years. He was a native of North Carolina but had been a resident of California for 30 years and was well known as a real estate operator in Los Angeles. He leaves a wife and children. Funeral services will be held Saturday, April 26th, at 11 a. m. at the L. A. Crematory in Los Angeles, with the Scovern Company in charge.

DEATH OF FRANCES PEARL MEAD

Frances Pearl Mead, beloved wife of Homer Mead, passed away at her home, 915 Mountain street, Tuesday, April 22d, aged 27 years. Her father, Frank Sullivan, shares the grief of her husband and she leaves two children, Homer M. Mead, and an infant, Robert Edward Mead. Her death, which resulted from heart failure, was a great shock to her friends as she was apparently feeling quite well. She was born in Washington, D. C., and had been a resident of Casa Verdugo for nine years. Funeral services will be held in the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, of which Rev. Julius Soper will have charge. Interment will take place in Grand View Cemetery.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair except cloudy or foggy tonight and in the early morning near the coast.

BASE BALL MORE POPULAR THAN EVER

Wars may come and wars may go, but base ball goes on forever. The enforced curtailment of the season last year seems to but have whetted the national appetite, and Wednesday witnessed the starting of the National and American Leagues season in a blaze of glory. Some of the stars of the pitching and batting end of the game are still on deck. Never mind who won. The great idea is—they're off!

WHY ITALY LEFT THE PEACE CONFERENCE

Away back in 1915, when France stubbornly stood with her back to the wall, defending Paris from the fierce onslaughts of the victory-flushed Germans, and England began to fear for the channel ports, Italy was then a member of the Triple Alliance, viz: Germany, Austria, Italy. France and England feared she would throw off her declared neutrality and join her treaty allies in fighting against them, so they persuaded her to join them by making a secret pact, called the Treaty of London, whereby, in case of a negotiated peace, Italy was to be allowed to annex the Trentino, Croatia and Dalmatia; in fact, the entire eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea, so as to shut out Austria entirely from that body of water. This, of course, included the port of Fiume, then an Austrian naval base. When the war ended in disastrous defeat of the Central Powers, and Austria was entirely eliminated as a menace, the Jugo-Slav nation demanded Fiume as their seaport, it to be their only outlet to the sea.

President Wilson declares their claims to be just and says conditions have changed entirely since the Treaty of London was negotiated, so that Italy ought not to claim Fiume. He concedes them everything but this, though at first he was disposed to deny them sovereignty over a part of Dalmatia and Croatia. The Italians demand all and so have withdrawn from the conference. It is hoped they will yet consent to President Wilson's demands and rejoin the council.

ARE YOU THANKFUL? SAY SO!

Horace Mann, in dedicating a school, declared that a boy was worth a million dollars. Some one asked him how he arrived at that figure. He replied, "He is, if he is MY boy."

A year ago the most optimistic were certain that the war must go on another year at least. Conservatively estimated, that year would have cost 500,000 lives of the best blood of the country. What would those lives have been worth in dollars and cents according to the Mann standard, for of every one some father or mother could say: "He is my boy"?

The war ended without that sacrifice of human life because the enemy saw the ease with which each Liberty Loan was floated; saw the great preparations that were being made; saw the never-ending procession of men—and because he saw all these he concluded the fight could end but one way, and he surrendered.

To call, equip and train those men; to gather the supplies to feed and clothe these men; and to make all the other preparations which combined served to unnerve the enemy, cost money, money that must be paid. It would have had to be paid had the war gone on, had those lives been lost and had the food and the materials been used. Why, then, should we not be willing to pay for the things that shortened the war and saved the thousands upon thousands of lives? Should not a spirit of gratitude and thankfulness prompt us to loan our money as never before?

You would think so if it were your boy, there is no question about that. But suppose that the other boy went, that your boy might remain at home—to farm, to make money. Doesn't he deserve as well of you as your boy would have deserved of others?

Suppose he went that you might remain with your family, to pursue your vocation and to profit by his absence at the front. Don't you think that you owe him a debt of gratitude that can not be fully paid by welcoming him home with a hand-shake?

You promised that you would do your fair share, that you would back him to the finish. The finish didn't come with the armistice. The armistice made further slaughter unnecessary, but it did not pay the bills already incurred. It did not end his police duty on the banks of the Rhine. It did not transport him back home. It did not put him in his old job or as good a one. It did not supply him with artificial limbs and the special training to overcome the handicap in the loss of an eye, an arm or a leg. Until the last boy is home and in a good job, or fitted for and provided with a new job, the war is not over, is not finished for him. Until it is, money will be needed.

That money must come through the sale of bonds. Are you going to stand by him to the end or quit at the first opportunity? He didn't quit.

Think how much easier it is to buy state and local tax exempt U. S. 4-4 per cent bonds—a better investment than a 6 per cent farm mortgage—than to leave home and family and endure the horrors of the trenches and No Man's Land.

Express your gratitude to the boys and your thankfulness to God in Victory Liberty Loan Bonds.

THE SPIRIT OF THE BAYONET

"Sixteen inches of cold steel, and it's made to kill Germans with; that's the spirit of the bayonet."

Is there any man in this American Expeditionary Force whose muscles have not hardened into iron at these words, whose wrath has not made of him a temporary maniac for hatred of the Hun and the Hun's unspeakable atrocities? Can you find it in your heart to so soon forget the God-sent bitterness against Germany that drew three millions of those cold steel bayonets from America to force the Hun into surrender?

There's only one answer. We'd do it all over again without question; again we'd toil for countless sweat-dripping hours killing imaginary Huns with that bayonet of cold steel, praying only for the opportunity to put a German into his last sleep, and regret that his end was too merciful; again we'd say that last silent good-bye and pray that one of those pink-cheeked sons of Hell might be put in front of that bayonet on No Man's Land.

And yet, only last week, some of you, it is said, were seen spending your playtime fraternizing with some of those same Germans. Some of you have even shared your tobacco and cigarettes with these captured Huns.

"The war is over," you say; but can you feel right in advancing any least argument why you should lift a finger to help one of those Huns? You certainly did not realize that these baby-eyed, pink-faced Germans were directing the machine guns that mowed down our brothers at St. Mihiel, for these Germans were captured at St. Mihiel. These are the men who are the murderers of our countrymen. Look at any one of them—you may see them any time along the Brest road—and just let it sink into your consciousness that that man is responsible for gold stars in the service flag at home. He is the man who sent poison into our lines; he is the brother of the men who marched through streets in Belgium with Belgian babies impaled on their German bayonets; his father applauded at the rape of Eastern France, his children are lustily and healthily growing stronger on American food to mock at the wrecked youth of France and Belgium; and his wife and mother, with no compassion for our own saddened American wives and mothers, are barbarously treasuring battlefield trophies taken from the dead bodies of our comrades.

Has the fever so quickly died in your blood? Are you willing today to let any Hun call you "Friend?"

You forget there is no peace today, we have merely stayed our wrath to complete in other ways the deadening of that most vicious poison the world has yet known, Germany.

You may yet get to follow that eager American bayonet point across the Rhine to avenge in some measure what Germany has done. The Hun is still your enemy, he has not yet acquiesced to our terms of peace, and the German prisoner in Camp Pontanezen is that Hun. Keep your spark of "The Spirit of the Bayonet" glowing. You may need it.—From the Pontanezen Duckboard, official publication of the American troops in Camp Pontanezen.

AMERICAN INDIAN DAY TO HONOR RED MEN

Chief Red Fox Skuhushu of the Northern Blackfoot Indians is a 100 per cent American. He is rather proud of the record his people made in supporting the war. American Indians sent 9,000 warriors into Uncle Sam's service; they gave $2,000,000 to the American Red Cross; they bought $50,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds. They were loyal in thought and act throughout.

Now Chief Red Fox suggests that a day in late September be set aside for an annual celebration of American Indian Day. He believes there are many things in the history of the race and the character of the finest type of American Indian that are worthy of respect and emulation.

The fourth Saturday in September is suggested as the day for the celebration because it comes in the time of year when many vacationers have recently returned from happy camping trips reminiscent of the outdoor life of the early Indians. Then, too, it is the season of the Indian summer, the time of the hunting moon, the period when the corn festival and council ceremonies of all tribes are held.

There is something distinctly appealing in the chief's suggestion. Every Boy Scout and every Camp Fire Girl would rejoice in such a day added to their red letter calendar. Grownups, too, would probably be glad to honor the Indian on such a day. In nearly every American heart lingers a touch of sympathy and admiration for the noblest, red men and a romantic worship left over from story book days, of one or two famous Indian heroes.—Santa Ana Register.

DEARTH OF HUSBANDS ONE SAD RESULT OF WAR

The surplus of marriageable women in Europe due to the war is exciting a lively concern, particularly in Great Britain, where it is estimated there are more than 1,500,000 women who will never have a chance to marry. One remedy proposed for the situation is a tax on bachelors.

But why is it assumed that they are in need of sympathy? Marriage is no longer the sole object of womanhood, and at no previous time in history has the condition now imposed on women by the war been so unendurable. No doubt the lack of husbands after the Napoleonic wars was a serious matter. But women have since had the benefit of a century of progressive emancipation. Almost every field of industry is now open to them, and all that is likely to happen is that their voluntary disposition to be independent and self-supporting will be intensified by circumstances.

No doubt they will submit to obligatory spinsterhood more cheerfully than masculine opinion gives them credit for. But is the case so bad, assuming that they will want to marry, as it appears on the surface? In our own Civil War 349,944 soldiers in the Northern armies alone were killed in battle or died of wounds and disease. This meant a serious theoretical dearth of prospective husbands. Yet it is not recalled that there was any "problem" and women then did not enjoy the present resources of the sex in the way of "gainful occupations" of every conceivable kind.—New York World.

More than 50 people were served last evening at Central Christian Church, it being regular church night. The majority of those present were members of the church, and the supper was greatly enjoyed. ## GINGHAM WEEK

If you have wondered why so many gingham have been in evidence in store windows the explanation is that this is "Gingham Week," so named by the jobbers who have asked retailers to feature it. The Williams Dry Goods Store has been showing about twenty-five carefully selected patterns of gingham moderately priced and in popular colorings, chiefly in yardage, but also made in garments which reveal how attractive they are. Gingham came into their own during the war and promise to hold the high place in public esteem they attained in that time of stress. Manufacturers and foresighted merchants like Mr. Williams are realizing this fact and making provision accordingly. 19811

CHAUTAUQUA HEALTH LECTURES IN GLENDALE CHURCHES

The Ministerial Union of Glendale has completed arrangements with J. C. Elliott, a noted health specialist of national reputation, for a series of Health lectures to be given in a number of our city churches. This course of lectures presents a plain common-sense method for Prevention of Disease by Right Living. The principles presented are in harmony with the great scientists, the physicians, and the science of medicine.

Mr. Elliott has presented this course of lectures in many of the larger cities of the nation. The lectures have packed to the doors many of the great auditoriums. Mr. Elliott has presented three series of lectures in the Trinity Auditorium Church, Los Angeles, each covering a period of from one month to six weeks. The lectures will open in the First Methodist Church with a sermon-lecture Sunday night on the Relation of Religion and Health. The opening lecture will be given Monday night at 7:45 on Prevention of Disease by Right Living. Lectures will be held daily at 2:30 and 7:45 in the Methodist Church during the first week. The lectures will be held in the Central Christian Church the second week, and in the First Congregational the third week. Admission will be free to the entire course of lectures. Mr. Elliott says, "Prevention of disease is the watchword in the United States Government, in the armies of the nations of the earth, and in all medical and scientific circles. If we devoted half the amount of care to the prevention of disease as we do to cure, disease would soon become a thing of the past. Man's normal condition is health, not disease. Disease is the product of ignorance, willful neglect and criminal abuse of the body."

PARKS FOR ALL OF GLENDALE

Through the Courtesy of the Glendale Evening News:—

Mr. Chairman of the Park Committee and Citizens of Glendale: While I am only seven months a resident of Glendale I ask for your indulgence to permit me to offer some suggestions regarding a Civic Center and Parks.

On the 15th inst., I attended the park meeting, and, as there were plenty of representatives, old residents of Glendale to fill the time of the evening, I didn't intrude by attempting to express my views. Before jumping at the first conclusion, and settle on the first site offered for a park, it seems to me that it would be wise to hear the views of more of the Citizen Taxpayers of our city, and carefully weigh all the ideas brought out, and look further for locations and sites: First, the Sanitarium site is an expensive block; just as good and central location (within a few blocks of said Sanitarium) could be had for much less money as centrally located and thus not drive away from Glendale, a beneficial and creditable institution by purchasing it. The Burbank people would just welcome such institutions and they would not be slow in offering tempting inducements, which would very likely cause them to accept rather than to rebuild in Glendale. Second: A half block of land would be sufficiently large to build the gymnasium and swimming pool, and outside resting place. Third: As Glendale is growing and is very likely to annex Casa Verdugo at the north, and has Tropico at the south, it would be well to give them both some consideration by locating a park at each end of Glendale. There are some sites on or near the car line on Brand boulevard that can be secured at very reasonable prices. Fourth: By locating parks that could be seen by all passengers coming in Glendale on the P. E. line or by autos on the Brand Blvd. and San Fernando Road, the park should create an attraction and be an aid to our city. There are two blocks on the east side of Brand boulevard opposite the turn of the Burbank line from the boulevard before crossing the bridge over the wash, either one of which would be suitable for a park. On Los Feliz Road, three blocks east of Tropico City Hall, is already partly covered with trees and well adapted

BRADFORD'S BREAD---Fresh every morning.

HOLSUM BREAD---Fresh every afternoon.

The steady increase in demand for these best breads, like Holsum and Bradford's, has convinced us that the people are being weaned away from buying "cheap bread."

Taken day in and day out, the sale of a high quality product at a fair margin of profit will win against catch-penny methods of those who sell "just as good" kinds of merchandise "for less."

for park. Sixth: Then on the east locate another park at Sycamore Canyon, thus giving consideration and accommodation to people in all parts of Glendale by beautifying their part of the city which they could get to within a walking distance. A half block in the center of Glendale would suffice for a natatorium, gymnasium and outside resting places and serve for a Civic Center and a Memorial for those having fallen on the battlefield.

Name the other parks in honor of the companies who went from Glendale, thus showing our gratitude and doing honor to all. For a number of years I was connected with natatoriums, Turkish baths and watering resorts, hence my experience enables me to offer suggestions regarding swimming pool. To solve the draining of the pool it would be well to build it above the ground, three feet at the shallow end and ten feet at the deep end. Make a dam at the deep end to let the surface of the water run over one or two inches deep during the time that it is in use, thus constantly purifying the water. Below the dam at the inside end of the pool, make a trough to receive the water and run the water on the ground through a hose to water the flowers and grass. When the pool needs emptying, if the ground cannot take the water, let it run in the gutter in the street by degrees so as not to flood the street.

The water should be let into the pool through a perforated pipe reaching across the bottom of the pool at the shallow end, thus creating a current toward the deep end and carrying the impurities to the top over the dam. Should this interest the committee, I will be pleased to explain my ideas more comprehensively to the architect, and assist in any capacity that I am able to render.

Yours for municipal progress,

NAPOLÉON LeBLANC,

"On the Toul sector on the Marne and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive the 25th played the game. They played to win and if a sense of hard, ofttimes dangerous work, well done, and the unstinted praise of those under whose command they worked is success, they won. They have been designated as permanent troops at Camp Pontanezen since their arrival in January, but are hoping to soon see the day when they can get back to their homes in the States."

Senator Harris of Georgia, who visited the camp the latter part of March, assured the men that the U.
S. Government was doing everything conceivable to get them home immediately that every available means of overseas transportation is being pressed into service and every type of ship being fitted for carrying troops.

A prominent article tells how "Central Delouser" springs to the foreground as a model of efficiency when 1600 men are inspected, marched into the dressing rooms, undressed, bathed, outfitted and ready for em-barcation without a chance of carrying any disease with them, in exactly one hour. This is an average of 400 men every fifteen minutes. In one day 24,000 troops can be deloused and put on board a ship for home.
The entire camp can be bathed and outfitted in thirty-two hours."

Another item of interest is the statement that: "In accordance with the policy of the War Department to give every man of the A. E.
F. who is detained in Europe a chance for an education in the lines he desires most, several courses will be started in the camp. However, the fact that a man is enrolled in this school will not interfere with his being sent home when his organization goes."

LEPROSY DISAPPEARING

MANILA, P. I., April 24.—Segregation of lepers as soon as discovery of prevalence of the disease is made, is resulting in the disease disappearing from the Island, according to a statement made here by Director of the Philippine Health Service, Vincente de Jesus. He declared that of the 5,000 lepers living at Cullion, 80 per cent. are from the Visayan Islands.

Before the inauguration of a stringent segregation campaign, the disease was spreading declared Dr. De Jesus. Now only from 200 to 300 lepers yearly come from all the provinces

REUNION OF FRIENDS

Father Time has with us dealt kindly;
He touches us up rather blindly.
For with gray he sprinkles the younger
And overlooks some who are older.
Dear friends, we extend a warm welcome;
A welcome that's hearty and wholesome
To our land which is fertile and sunny.
Whose air is fragrant and balmy.
When you return back o'er the prairies,
Back 'cross the wide Mississippi,
Remember that always our prayer is
That you will be healthy and happy.
We're glad for this hour's recreation,
Glad for this quiet relaxation.
It exceeds our high expectation
Suggested by oft meditation.
Take this word back to the Eastland—
Back to our friends and our classmates—
To the boys and girls in the homeland.
We know how they long for this state,
For the sea, for the streams, the Sierras,
We know of our skies they are jealous.
They don't like their frozen tierras;
Of water pipes, cracked, they're not zealous.
That they erred in choice, we are sorry.
Take, as you go, as did Caleb, Fruit of the land—an orange, or cherry, Flowers—gorgeous of petal and calyx—
These to prove to them their folly
That Michigan's not up to Calif (ornia).
—Pliny F. Haskell, M. D., Long Beach, Calif.

Short speeches were made by Mr.
Harry Saunders, Dr. Geo. Thomason, and others, which were heartily applauded. Refreshments were served, and after more music and visiting, it was necessary to bring the happy evening to a close.

Among those present were the following: Mrs. D. K. Royer, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Dr. Pliny Haskell, wife and son, of Long Beach, Calif.;
Miss Ida Thompson, San Fernando;

TUJUNGA

Mrs. Litchfield and son Gerard spent their Easter vacation in Tujunga, stopping at "Bide-a-wee." Gerard is attending the City Military Academy in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. R. Melhard has been enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs.
Fritts, of Erie, Penn., during her week's vacation. They visited Mt.
Lowe, San Diego and the Catalina Islands.

Mr. Morris Meyers and wife, in company with Mr. David Sobriskey, of Los Angeles, while motoring in the Big Tujunga last Sunday, had the misfortune to swerve off the road and turn over their machine. Aside from one sustaining a broken shoulder blade they escaped with only minor bruises. Some friends took them into Los Angeles, leaving their car in the garage for repairs. The parties were friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Ephraim, who occupy Miss Gilbert's cottage.

Mrs. Nora Millsbaugh of Los Angeles has been spending a few days in Tujunga. She entertained a few friends on Friday with a picnic luncheon at Manzanita Park. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Jessie F. Millsbaugh, the Misses Millsbaugh, Miss Barbara Greenwood, Miss Genevieve Metkiff, Miss Mary Morse of Los Angeles, Mrs. E. H. Parsons of Pasadena, Mrs. John McGroarty, Mrs.
Mary Lubrecht, Miss Zoe Gilbert,
Miss Cora Linaberry and Mrs. Mary Fairfield of Tujunga. It was a beautiful day and all enjoyed the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson have rented the Johnson place on San Ysidro Road. Mr. Carlson is working for the Water Company as Mr. Woodrow expects soon to return to his old home in Minnesota.

The Woman's Guild held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs.
Morgan at Oak Glenn on Tuesday.
They are preparing for an apron sale and will have many pretty ones for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came up from Palm Springs to attend to the transfer of their property and remove their own personal belongings.
They will go from Palm Springs to Banning for the summer months.
